9-Ball Tri-Cup

Michael Romine.

The finalist teams ended up taking totally different journeys to the finals. "A Roast Beef Sammich" played hard and fought their way through match after match straight forward all the way to the finals. Often, along their journey they just barely escaped out of the clutches of their opponents. Drawing a "Bye" on Friday Night at KC's Midway, they began right out of the gate on Saturday morning by knocking off eventual Bronze Medallion winners "Roll 'Em In" In Saturday's 5 PM round "The Sammiches" simply kept it simple and coolly knocked off "Keep It Simple", to be able to move on into the 9 AM Sunday morning medal round up at Rodder's against the "Str8Shooters." "The Sammiches" came at them hard and fast and made the "Str8s Shooters" go off their aim and miss enough times that they had no recourse other than grab their $350 bridesmaid money and head on out the door to home leaving "A roast Beef Sammich" a spot guarantee in the June 2015 June Regionals.

Next, in the 1 PM Sunday round the "Sammiches" to charge over "Rack 'Em Up" Sending them out the door with the Bronze, and $500 in 5th place money. Moving into the next 3 PM round against the "Main Street Madness" crowd it was a close battle, but in the end "Main Street Madness" were left behind, holding the Silver, and waiting to be admitted into the psycho ward. While the "Sammich's" just hung around waiting to hear their names being called for the Gold/Platinum finals.

In the meantime, "Behind The 8-Ball" took a whole different road into the finals. Drawing a "Bye" on Friday down at Rodder's, they started out Saturday morning by getting their hide's thoroughly tanned by "Rawhide" and went flying off to the one loss side where they lucked out and still got a "Bye" in the 1 PM round so had ample time to heal their wounds. In the 5:00 Pm round they snuffed out the "Motley Cues" sending them out the door with their motley's dragging to go into the Sunday's 9 Am round up at Rodder's against the fierce "On The Run" from Pub 181. The "Behinds" never looked back as they sent "On The Run" running on out the door straight to home with $350 in their pockets but no medal. Claiming bragging rights, to at least a Bronze Medallion and a slot to regionals the "Behinds" were proudly standing tall now that the real pressure was off.

In the 1 PM Sunday round they unemployed "Works For Us" and left them behind holding the Bronze and $500. Moving up into the 3 PM Silver/Gold round the "Miss Cues" mis-cued and came up short against the "Behinds," and so it was off the finals for the "Behind the 8-Balls" and off down the silver asphalt highway for the "Miss Cues."

So, in the finals it was "Behind the 8-Ball" from Fortune Star versus everybody's favorite food "A Roast Beef Sammich" from Sam's Hollywood Billiards...One would be Golden and one would be Platinum. Starting with a Color of Money (Continued on Pg 5.)

SILVER - MAIN STREET MADNESS

SILVER - THE MISS CUES

GOLD - A ROAST BEEF SAMMICH

PLATINUM - BEHIND THE 8-BALL
